

7.11.24 Homophones	14.11.24 Statutory words	21.11.24 Words ending -able	28.11.24 Words ending -ible	5.12.24 Words ending -ent, -ence, - ency	12.12.24 Revision
ascent assent morning mourning allowed aloud isle aisle past passed steel steal	according curiosity familiar identity immediate immediately recommend suggest	noticeable considerable forceable breakable changeable reliable tolerable adorable applicable	audible legible legibly reversible sensible forcible forcibly	innocent innocence frequent frequency parent decent decency obedient obedience independent independence confident confidence assistant assistance	Random words from the Autumn Term

Spellings will be tested on Thursday mornings.

There are timetabled slots during the week to practice and consolidate in school. There are also suggestions on our class webpage of strategies to help the children learn the words. Use this link:

t-l-52830-strategies-for-learning-spellings-activity-sheet-ver-1.pdf \(primarysite-prod-sorted.s3.amazonaws.com\)

Achieving a good score in the tests is important, however, spelling the words correctly when writing independently is more so!